BEIJING

Described as an 'enthraling clash of personalities', Beijing can uniquely offer both rural traditionalism, and an intense, riveting, modern city life. Packed with rich history and innovative modern creations, the Chinese capital is the best of both worlds, all in one city.

Glorious cutting edge architecture fills the city, with the Great Wall of China as the dreamy backdrop across the mountains.

Why not time your trip to coincide with the Chinese New Year, for the ultimate trip...?

Beijing

The Chinese capital has a bounty of treasures to be soaked up and experienced, from the infamous Wall of China, to lesser known attractions such as the Dadong restaurant. Now is the best time to visit this vibrant and bustling city, with the Chinese New Year approaching. The festivities associated with this annual festival would make for a truly special trip, with wondrous traditions to experience in person.

We can provide a Glass Cabin experience for you and your guests, where you soak up the breathtaking views from your room!

Opt for a resort stay, and you can utilise the benefits including use of the saunas and magnificent restaurants.

TMA TEAM:

You really can't get better than this! To stay in such a unique style of accommodation, complete with all the benefits of the sensational Finnish saunas- this would be a truly incredible experience.

Aurora Glass Cabins

Finland

Why opt for a common hotel, when you can enjoy a room with a view... With a heap of world class resorts to choose from, guests can stay in a stunning glass cabin, with a pristine view of the iconic Aurora lights. Resorts can include access to luxurious saunas, including the world's largest smoke sauna with it's own restaurant in Kakslautanen Arctic Resot. You can even add a husky and reindeer tour, as well as a snowbiling excursion!
